

1. Under the Classes tab:

Please completely delete New! 4 Week Intro Course and Intro to Aikido Course tabs

I would like there to be two tabs under classes, one for aikido classes, and one for Katori/karate.

I mocked up a separate schedule for Aikido which I have attached for your review. Having everything on the same schedule is confusing.

2. Please move the How to Join tab to below the Classes tab rather than having payment information be right under classes.

3. Many edits on the How to Join page:

Deletions and some new text:

(The dojo will be open for new students in July, 2021.)

The 4 Week Trial Aikido Course is for beginning students interested in trying Aikido for the first time. New beginning students are more than welcome to enjoy this trial offer for four weeks of classes at Aikido of Madison at any time! We ask that you first observe at least one Aikido class before joining. For your convenience and planning, here is a link to our class schedule. For children, check out our children and youth program.

If you're an adult or young adult interested in joining along with other new beginning students, twice each year we offer an introductory course. Click here to read more about our Introduction to Aikido Course. Want to try aikido right away? We also offer a "trial month" at a reduced rate.

Here's how to give us a try:

Our trial month introductory offer may be used to attend 8 classes during any 4 week period. You may choose the class times that work best for you. The introductory rate is $50.00, a $25 discount on the regular monthly rate. (The introductory rate is $35, a $15 discount, for students enrolled in school or college.)

And as a special bonus, if you join our school after your 4-week introduction we will waive our $15 joining fee.

You can “mix and match” classes to fit your schedule from the following times:

Monday / Wednesday: 6:00-7:00 AM

Tuesday/ Thursday: 12:00-1:00 PM

Monday Evening: 6:30-7:30 PM

Wednesday Evening: 7:00-8:00 PM

Details for Mixing and Matching Classes: All of the Monday & Tuesday classes in a given week cover the same material and the same is true for the Wednesday & Thursday classes. Mixing days/times works well as long as you do one Mon/Tues and one Weds/Thurs class.

Friday Weapons Class

For the duration of the class, participants are also welcome at Friday weapons class (6:15-7:15) which will feature special introductory material. These classes are optional and the material covered is not part of the main course progression.

The only prerequisite is to watch a class before participating in this special offer. This offer is only for students new to Aikido and may only be used one time.

How to Join Aikido of Madison

Beginning Students

If you're a beginning student interested in trying Aikido for the first time, you're more than welcome to join Aikido of Madison at any time. We ask that you first observe at least one Aikido class before joining. .

Beginners are welcome in any classes labeled Basic or Open. Because Aikido is mostly a partner practice, as a beginner you will be paired with more experienced members who will guide and assist you during classes. For your convenience and planning, here is a link to our class schedule. For children, check out our youth Aikido page.

If you're an adult or young adult interested in joining along with other new beginning students, twice each year we offer an introductory course completely dedicated to new students. Click here to read more about our Introduction to Aikido Course .
